DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 17, 2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1 through 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claim 1 recites the limitations " $0.1 \leq y \leq 0.3$, $0.2 \leq x \leq 1.0$ " and " $x+y+z=1$ " in lines 6 and 8. As applicant has required y to have a non zero value, it is unclear how x can have a value of 1, when the sum of x and y must equal 1. It is suggested that applicant change the range for x to match the embodiment in the specification.

5. Claims 2 through 5 all depend from claim 1 and are indefinite for the same reasoning.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Koike et al. (U.S.P.G.Pub 2001/0002048).

Koike discloses non amorphous aluminum indium nitride and aluminum gallium indium nitride (see the entire document), which, it is the Examiner's position, has the claimed Seebeck coefficient and electrical resistivity, particularly in view of the fact that aluminum indium nitride is within the scope of formula (B) in instant claim 6 (see abstract with $z=0.70$ and x being 0.3). Since Koike teaches the limitations of the instant claims, the reference is deemed to be anticipatory.

In addition, the instant Seebeck coefficient and electrical resistivity would obviously have been present once Koike's aluminum indium nitride has been provided. Note In re Best, 195 USPQ at 433, footnote 4 (CCPA 1977) as to the providing of this rejection under 35 USC 103 in addition to the rejection made above under 35 USC 102.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. Claims 1 through 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Scholl et al. (U.S.P.G.Pub 2004/0108803).

Scholl discloses both gallium oxynitride and indium oxynitride as materials (paragraph 0029).

The difference between Scholl and the claims is the requirement of a specific oxynitride with a specific composition.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to combine the gallium and indium oxynitrides of Scholl into one material because Scholl teaches that combinations of the materials are possible (paragraph 0029). The exact ratios of gallium to indium in the combination would depend on the specific application for the material and absent any unexpected results, it would be obvious for one skilled in the art to select the ratios upon optimization of the combination properties. Since the combination of gallium and indium oxynitride meets the composition formula, the required properties would obviously have been present as well. Thus the claims are obvious over the reference.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 through 10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP
